

Roselea Football Club: Codes of Conduct

Winning at any sport, once in a competitive age group, is a part of our sporting tradition but the “spirit of the game” is more important.

This good sporting spirit is an integral part of the Roselea Football Club and must be demonstrated at all times by our players, team and club officials, parents of our junior players and all of our supporters and spectators.

It is particularly important that this is demonstrated and modelled to our youngest players who learn from observing and following the role modelling of parents, coaches, managers and senior players.

At Roselea Football Club the following Codes of Conduct, are expected, and will be enforced.
